CONFERENCE CATALYSTS, LLC ANNOUNCES CHANGES TO ITS LEADERSHIP TEAM

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Conference Catalysts, LLC, world-class event management, association management, and web & graphic services provider today announced changes in its leadership team.

Former VP Client Services, Judy Scharmann, has been promoted to Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the company effective January 1, 2019. Chris Dyer, owner, and founder of Conference Catalysts, LLC will remain as President of the company. Brittian Parkinson, former Director of Association Management Operations, has assumed the Vice President (VP) Client Services position. Ileana Canizares has begun in the role of Director of Event Management Operations.

It is the mission of Conference Catalysts, LLC to provide clients with tailored approaches to their needs with a superior level of personalized service. The company has experienced steady growth in its client portfolio and continues to grow.

“It is an exciting time at Conference Catalysts!” says Scharmann. “I am honored to be leading this extraordinary group of professionals. I plan to foster our team to tend to our company culture, stay true to our core values, and continue to bring their best selves to work each day. We have some ambitious growth goals that are indeed attainable because of the strength of our team.”
